Foreman - Bug #27005

New editor always thinks there is a change in template

06/10/2019 01:14 PM - Ondřej Ezr

Status: Closed
Priority: Normal
Assignee: Gilad Lekner
Category: JavaScript stack
Target version: 1.23.0

Pull request: https://github.com/theforeman/foreman/pull/6840

Description

The new editor always make it seems the template changed, even if there is no actual change.

Result - we are unable to change assignment of locked templates

Discussed offline, but for consistency:

Locked provisioning templates can not be assigned to OS, even though template content is not changed.
Problem is editor is sending the content even though it hasn't changed (and is actually readonly).
